

Meeting Conduct & Parliamentary Procedures

Legal Notice All board of education meetings shall be warned and conducted as provided by Connecticut General Statutes; under governing statutes, a meeting is any quorum of the board of education convened in person or electronically to discuss or act upon a board matter, but meetings shall not include:

1. any meeting of a personnel search committee for executive level positions;
2. any chance meeting or a social meeting neither planned nor intended for discussing board of education business;
3. strategy or negotiations with respect to collective bargaining;
4. a caucus of members of a single political party notwithstanding that such members also constitute a quorum of the board of education;
5. communications limited to notice of meetings of the board of education or the agendas for such meetings.

Recording, Broadcasting, or Photographing Meetings The media may record, photograph, broadcast or record for broadcast by persons, newspapers, radio and television stations with 24 hour advance notification and approval by the superintendent of schools. Such recording, photographing, broadcasting or recording for broadcasting by persons, newspapers, radio and television stations shall be done as inconspicuously as possible and in such manner as not to disturb the board of education meeting.

Conduct of Meetings In the event that a board of education meeting is interrupted by any person or group of persons who render the orderly conduct of the meeting unfeasible and order cannot be restored by the removal of individuals who are willfully interrupting the meeting, the chairman of the board of education shall order the meeting room cleared and continue in session. Only regular items on the agenda may be considered if such case. Media representatives, unless they were disorderly, shall be permitted to attend the sessions held in this manner.

After time has passed, the chairman, in his or her discretion, may suspend the board meeting and invite back those members of the public not responsible for the disruption.

Voting Method Board minutes shall reflect how each member votes on each motion. Board of education voting shall be by voice votes - with an exception for the election of officers at board organizational meetings which may be by initialed or signed ballots.

Except as provided by law, Board Policy, Board Bylaws, or any other binding agreements on the board, a majority vote of members present and voting shall be sufficient to pass a motion. Abstentions shall not be counted as votes.

Parliamentary Procedures Board meetings shall be conducted according to the rules of parliamentary procedure laid down in Robert's Rules of Order New Revised unless otherwise specified by state law or in written bylaws or board of education operating procedures. (cf. 9321 Time, Place, Notification for Meetings }
